PRINCETON WINS

PRINCETON, N. J., October 14.—The locals won to-day's game from Villa Nova 6 to 0. Casey, of Villa Nova, wriggled free from a mass of players in the second half, and, running seventy-five yards, scored a touchdown, but it was not allowed, because Bard, of Princeton, had been tripped. Princeton's touchdown by Read was scored only after a series of line plunges.

PENNSY'S SUBS WORK HARD

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., October 14.—Pennsylvania defeated Gettysburg College to-day by the score of 23 to 4. With all the regulars in the line-up, the first half was 8 to 4 in favor of Pennsylvania, but the substitutes, who came on in the second half, played much faster football, and scored three touchdowns, from which two goals resulted.

OLD NORTH STATE FAIR IS SUCCESS

Good Attendance Marks Second Day of Exhibition—Harness Races Are Exciting.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., October 14.—Immense crowds characterized the second day of the State Fair. A splendid procession of exhibition stock, the grand parade of marshals, officials and distinguished visitors, two successful flights of the airship and a series of exciting races were the special features of the day. The great fair is proving a record-breaker in crowds and special attractions.

The second day's racing card of the North Carolina State Fair was made up of events of high class entries, although the fields were rather small. The summary:

WILL LET THE LAW SETTLE WITH BOOKIES

LEXINGTON, Ky., October 14.—What is regarded by a majority of racing men as the death blow to racing in Kentucky, if the courts uphold action taken this afternoon by the State Racing Commission, was struck when the commission adopted a resolution not to interfere with the existing system of betting on the tracks under the jurisdiction of the commission. The resolution is signed by Colonel Milton Young, Louis des Cognete and Colonel F. Clay.

Joseph Rhinock, president of the L. & T. Club, also appeared in the same capacity. He said after the meeting that when Latonia opened on Monday, bookmaking would prevail and that the courts would have to settle the case.

WARRENTON POLO GAME.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WARRENTON, Va., October 14.—An interesting game of polo was played this afternoon by two picked teams from the Warrenton clubs. The game was played at Airlie Field, on the handsome estate of H. C. Groom, and resulted in a tie. Score 5 to 5. Many people went out from town to witness the sport.

EMPORIA FAIR IS DRAWING CROWDS

5,000 Spectators See Show and Races—Break Down in 2:35 Trotting Event.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
EMPORIA, Va., October 14.—The second day of the Emporia Fair opened with a cloudless sky and an early hour the town began filling with people, many of whom came from the surrounding country in carriages. By noon there were over 5,000 people on the grounds. All excursion trains were met by the marshals parade, and the visitors were escorted to the grounds, headed by the Fourth Regiment Band. All the restaurants were well patronized, and the side shows and concession people did a big business during the day. The fair commenced work in the different departments early this morning, and will complete their labors in good time to-morrow.

There was much excitement during the first heat of the 2:35 trot, through the sulky, drawn by Topsy B. breaking down. The driver, J. B. Bailey, was thrown, and the horse continued over the track in a gallop, endangering the horses and drivers ahead, but fortunately no injury resulted. The horse escaped into the crowd standing along the track, and was finally captured. The accident was unavoidable, the horse was permitted by the judges to start in the next heat.

In the 2:19 pace, the horse Tattler, alias Toscan, was protested on the ground that "he was started at Norfolk, Va., in July, 1908, under the name of Tattler, and the horse continued along the track in a gallop, endangering the horses and drivers ahead, but fortunately no injury resulted. The horse escaped into the crowd standing along the track, and was finally captured. The accident was unavoidable, the horse was permitted by the judges to start in the next heat.

The summary:

2:19 pace, purse $300—
Lucius Todd, b. g. T. L. Slack
Tattler, alias T. C. (Bass)..... 1 1 1
Tattler, alias T. C. (Bass)..... 2 2 2

Tattler, alias T. C. (Bass)..... 9 9 9
Tattler, alias T. C. (Bass)..... 10 10 10

2:27 1-2 as a trotter, and the horse was then known as Toscan.

This horse was entered by J. M. Garrett, of Norfolk, and the owner, O. C. Brinkley, deposited a check for $50 for the change of name from Toscan to Tattler, the sum to be forwarded to the National Trotting Association.

The summary:

2:19 pace, purse $300—
Lucius Todd, b. g. T. L. Slack
Tattler, alias T. C. (Bass)..... 1 1 1

Tattler, alias T. C. (Bass)..... 10 10 10

The races to-morrow will begin at 1 o'clock P. M., and will consist of the free-for-all, 2:18 trot and a running race (gentlemen riders).

CHAMPIONSHIP IS WON BY CHICAGO

two leagues. In 1903 the world's championship emblem went to Boston, of the American League; in the succeeding series New York brought it back to the National League. In the following year the Chicago White Sox recaptured it for the younger organization; last year the Chicago Cubs brought it back to the National League by defeating Detroit; but this year the flag remains with the National League club in Chicago.

JENNINGS A DAUNTLESS LEADER.

There is gloom in Detroit to-night. The black stripes which alternated with yellow in the scheme of decoration look like crepe hung out for the death of long-cherished hopes. The Detroit "Tiger" has no smile on its face; but there is one head spirit which does not know the meaning of the word defeat. A dauntless heart beats in the breast of Manager Hugh Jennings, of Detroit. He believes in his team—believes that it will yet prove its superiority over all comers, and he does not contemplate past defeats, but looks forward to another year and another struggle, which may have a different result.

Jennings was not beaten to-day until Schmidt's foul in the ninth had found secure and final lodgement in King's capacious mitt. Through the fierce uphill battle this afternoon, he stood on the line, off first base, coaching the runners on every move and spurring the batsmen on to make their best efforts. No success of the rival team, no failure of his own club, dampened his determined cheerfulness. There was never a falling note in his cry of "wee-ah," and any slight advantage set him to executing his peculiar war dance.

SCHMIDT RECOVERS HIS WING.

A feature of the game was Schmidt's recovery of his throwing arm, which had not been working well during any previous game. Chicago was not able to steal a base on him for the first time during the series. He handled two bunts in clean fashion, retiring his men at first, and he broke up an attempted double steal by Evers and Chance.

Overall, for the second time, pitched a masterly game. Only three hits were made off him, and one of these would have been an easy out had the ball not taken a bad bound. He was wild at times, giving four bases on balls, but his strikeouts numbered ten. One of these strikeouts, however, occurred when Roseman made his third swing at a wild pitch, enabling him to reach first safely. Donovan, on the other hand, met with a very vigorous reception in the first inning, when three hits sent Evers over the plate with the first run of the game.

With the exception of the fifth inning, when a base on balls and Evers' double gave Chicago another run, Donovan managed to keep the hits scattered. It is probable, however, that Chicago would have run up a large score had it not been for the brilliant work of the Detroit infield.

O'LEARY MAKES SENSATIONAL CATCH.

O'Leary's spectacular catch of Tinker's "Texas leaguer," far back of second base, was a feature.

Evers scored Chicago's first run in the first. He singled to centre, took second on Schulte's hit to left, and raced home on Chance's safe drive to centre.

A base on balls was primarily responsible for Chicago's second and last run in the fifth. Kling walked, went to second on Overall's sacrifice, and scored on Evers' double. Detroit threatened to score but twice. In the first McIntyre walked, and O'Leary struck out. Crawford singled to centre, putting McIntyre on second. Cobb tried to bunt the first two balls pitched, and then struck out. Roseman struck out, but went to first, as the third strike was a wild pitch, which went past Kling, filling the bases. In the fifth Kling was safe when his grounder to Steinfeldt took an awkward bound, and he went to third when McIntyre doubled into the left field corner, but he needed it was not forthcoming from either O'Leary or Crawford, for the former flew out to Hoffman, who held Coughlin at third by a beautiful throw home, and Crawford struck out.
